Case No. 2:11-cv-15481-PJD-DRG

Hon. Patrick J. Duggan

Mag. Judge David R. Grand

AFFIDAVIT OF BRANDON SZUCH

BEFORE ME, the undersigned Notary, Sharon Peper, on this 22nd day of June, 2012, personally appeared Brandon Szuch, known to me to be a credible person and of lawful age, declares under penalty of perjury that the following is true:

On October 20, 2010 in 6th hour we all sat down and started class. Mr. McDowell started talking about gay rights and how gays are discriminated against. Dan (Daniel Glowacki) said it was against his religion to be gay. Mr. McDowell looked at him and asked if he supported gays. Dan said no, it was against his religion. When Dan told Mr. McDowell it was against his religion to be gay, he didn't say it sarcastically or have any attitude in his voice, it was like he was talking to a friend. Mr. McDowell immediately got mad and started yelling at Dan and told him to go to the office. Dan asked why because he didn't do anything wrong and Mr. McDowell said he was showing hatred towards gays and he also told Dan he was going to get suspended for discriminating against gays. Dan walked out of the room to go to the office and Mr. McDowell started to have a discussion with the class about it. Mr. McDowell called the office in front of the class to have a security guard come get Dan and he was crying when he was on the phone. Most people in the class thought that Mr. McDowell over reacted and that Dan did nothing wrong. I thought Mr. McDowell over reacted and Dan didn't do anything wrong, he just told him that it was against his religion to be gay.
